

CDN This week

Communion Sunday, January 10th

Operation World prayer focus today: the world

This morning at 11am ...

- A paraphrase of Psalm 100 set to a familiar tune reminds us who made us and watches over us.
- God's love is celebrated in Communion and echoed by Paul in 2 Corinthians 9 as he insists that the Gospel must shape our lives.

This evening at 7pm ...

- King David's plea for forgiveness in Psalm 51 leads into our evening Communion celebration
- We conclude our search for "Jesus in the Old Testament" by considering individuals who foreshadow His work in their lives

The New City Catechism

(See www.newcitycatechism.com for more resources.)

Question 9: What does God require in the first, second and third commandments?

Answer: First, that we know and trust God as the only true and living God.

Second, that we avoid all idolatry and do not worship God improperly.

Third, that we treat God's name with fear and reverence, honoring also His Word and works.

Wednesday, January 13th

We begin the year with a new video study
"Forgiving what you can't forget."

The Zoom conversation opens at 7pm. We begin at 7:30pm.

(The computer and phone access codes are the same ones from previous studies. Call or email the minister if you need them.)

Special Announcement

In accordance with the new restrictions announced by Premier Legault Sunday morning and evening services will be live streamed only until mid February. There will no in person services at the church until then. The Wednesday evening study will continue on Zoom.

Please do not hesitate to call or email if you, or someone you know in the community, needs help or support during this period of new restrictions.

The next meeting of the CDN Session will be held by Zoom on Saturday, February 6th beginning at 10am.
