

Sunday, February 21st

Operation World focus country for prayer: Armenia

This morning at 11am ...

- Our responsive reading of Psalm 93 reminds us of God's majesty, His sovereign reign, might and holiness, and the trustworthiness of His decrees.
- A string of six exhortations in the closing salutation of 2 Corinthians 13 gives us a great summary of the things we have learned together from this book in the past several months.

This evening at 7pm ...

- In Psalm 59 David leads us to take comfort in our loving God as our fortress, even in the midst of ongoing adversity.
- What can we learn about God and our need for His forgiveness from what appears to be the missing ending to the fifth and final chapter of the book of Lamentations 5?

The New City Catechism

(See www.newcitycatechism.com for more resources.)

Question 15: Since no one can keep the law, what is its purpose?

Answer: That we may know the holy nature and will of God, and the sinful nature and disobedience of our hearts; and thus our need of a Saviour. The law also teaches and exhorts us to live a life worthy of the Saviour.
