- In his final Sunday as our student minister, Enoch Lee, takes us again to the upper room (John 15:9-17) where Jesus challenges the disciples (and us) about the link between joy and obedience

This evening at 7pm ...

- Our tour of the Psalms of Jesus ends with Psalm 110 that tells us about what Jesus has been doing since his resurrection and ascension

Question 24: Why was it necessary for Christ, the Redeemer, to die?

Answer: Since death is the punishment for sin, Christ died willingly in our place to deliver us from the power and penalty of sin and bring us back to God. By His substitutionary atoning death, He alone redeems us from hell and gains for us forgiveness of sin, righteousness and everlasting life.
