

CDN This Week

Sunday, March 12th

This morning at 11am ...

- Psalm 19
- John 1:1-14, 8:44 - The Chaplain and the Incarcerated

As our minister leads Communion and worship at Montreal West this morning, we welcome Rev. David Shantz to our pulpit. He and his wife Susannah left Kitchener, Ontario to serve here in Quebec in 1975. An ordained minister with the Mennonite Church of Eastern Canada, Rev. Shantz pastored two French churches and then served for 25 years as a chaplain with Correctional Service Canada. Since retiring in 2013 they continue to volunteer, including a unique ministry to ex inmates, and they are regulars at our Sunday evening service.

This evening at 7pm ...

- Psalm 92
- 1 Thessalonians 5:14,15 - A call to ministry and care
Our minister is back to lead worship and open the Word tonight.

Question 15: Since no one can keep the law, what is its purpose?

Answer: That we may know the holy nature of God,
and the sinful nature of our hearts;
and thus our need of a Saviour.

For by works of the law no human being will be justified in his sight, since through the law comes knowledge of sin. — Romans 3:20

The Gospel - in the words of His enemies

Our Sunday morning Lenten series begins next Sunday, March 19th. As Jesus neared the end of His ministry, He faced increasing persecution, but God used the words of His critics, sometimes in very surprising ways, to underline the truth of His message, and about who He was.
