

CDN Anniversary Weekend

1864-2023

Our speaker this weekend is Rev. Dr. Martin Kreplin. Ordained into the PCC in 1984, he served congregations in Unionville and Renfrew Ontario, and then for 23 years at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church Moncton, NB, where he retired in June 2022. Martin actively serves as a Board Member of The Evangelical Fellowship of Canada, and has played a key role in Living Stones—a new Presbyterian denomination emerging from congregations withdrawing from the PCC. Martin's wife of 42 years, Eleanor is a Therapeutic Counsellor. They have 3 adult children and 3 grandchildren.

July 8th - Quebec City Bus Trip

You are warmly invited to this year's summer bus trip to Quebec City. We will be touring the city, and making several stops at historic places in and around old Quebec - the oldest walled city in North America! We need to have a final tally and have paid the funds to the bus company by the end of June, so we encourage you to plan and reserve early. Contact Lovina or Seth for more details, and to reserve your place.
